REVERSE VERDICT

The Appellate Court Hands Down Decision in Powers-Howard Cases Today.

ONE DECISION UNANIMOUS

The Whole Court Agrees in the Howard Case, But Not so With Powers.

WHITE, PAYNTER AND HOBSON DISSENT

Frankfort, March 28.—The appellate court has brought in the long deferred and looked for decision in the Powers-Howard cases. The decision of the lower courts was reversed. In the Howard case the whole court concurred in the verdict but in the Powers case three judges, White, Paynter and Hobson dissented. Howard and Powers were charged with complicity in the murder of Goebel and in the trials Powers was sentenced to life in the penitentiary and Howard was condemned to die.

The decision in the Powers' case holds that Taylor's pardon was not valid and the indictment was good, but it reverses the verdict and orders a new trial on grounds of erroneous instructions to the jury and incompetent testimony. The Howard case was reversed on the grounds of erroneous instructions to the jury, incompetent testimony and several minor points. Judge Durrell delivered the opinion in the Powers' case and Judge Burnam read the opinion in the Howard case.

Washington, March 28.—Patents were issued to Kentuckians as follows: W. O. Wort's, Chicago, assignor two-thirds to W. R. Donaldson, Louisville, duplex gas machine; Fred Stitzel, Crescent Hill, mashing grain; Charlie B. Henderson, Mt. Vernon, rolling pin; N. O. Emery, Paducah, comb; J. P. Chevalier, Shelbyville, dumping wagon.

BOSLEY'S JOB.

TRAIN FIRED UPON.

Earlington, March 28.—The Louisville and Nashville Florida special was shot into as the train passed through Sebree, the ball smashing a window within a few inches of a passenger in the smoking car.

J. T. Boaz was arrested by Officer J. R. Gray today for a plain drunk.

An event is a circumstance that seldom happens.

CITY NOTES

Matters at a Standstill in Municipal Circles Today—No City Court.

SEVERAL ARRESTS MADE

Moochers so Thick the Police Have to Disperse Them—The Saloons All Closed.

NOTHING SENSATIONAL TO DISTURB

There was no session of the police court today on account of the primary election. Several arrests, however, were made last night.

Newt, alias Doc Davis, was arrested in the Clarks River region, by Captain Henry Bailey and Officer Tom Potter last night on a charge of obtaining goods by false pretenses.

Mrs. Geo. Kendall alleges that the defendant went to her home in Rowlandtown last July and said he was called to the deathbed of his father eight miles away. He borrowed a mule from her, on which to make the trip and claims it has never been returned. After several fruitless attempts Davis was at last captured.

The prisoner says he took the mule for a debt, and that it died three weeks after he came into possession of it. His examining trial is set for tomorrow.

A quantity of brass was found in the possession of Jas. C. Lyon, white, last night by Officers Gray and Gourieux.

A negro named McClelland from Arlington, who was with him was also arrested, but released. Lyon is held as a suspect.

The brass was identified by Special Agent Laffey as property of the Illinois Central. Lyon, who claims to be from Pittsburgh, will be charged with petty larceny.

James Johnson was arrested last night by Captain Bailey and Lieut. Moore for a plain drunk.

John Hamilton, was arrested by Officers Beadles and Friant for a breach of the peace.

The aggregation of "moochers" that thronged the street corners in the business portion of the city yesterday, and in fact for several days past, had to be dispersed by the police last evening. They were a disgrace to a community that boasts of police protection. Many of them were drunk and most of the others willing to be, and people in the pursuit of legitimate business could hardly get along the sidewalks for the obnoxious "bums."

Many of those who looked on the flowing bowl not wisely but too well last night were in desperate straits today, for the saloons were closed and they had a hard time finding anything to relieve that "tired feeling."

Every vehicle in the city was hired today by candidates and their friends. The use of vehicles on regular election is prohibited by law, but they may be used in primaries.

Deputy U. S. Marshal G. W. Saunders is an interested spectator at all police court sessions when he is in the city. There was never much police court where the major came from, Mayfield, and hence he finds Paducah's generally well stocked tribunal very whereabouts.

TRUE TO HIS FATHER.

Owensboro, March 28.—In the forcible entry and detainer case of Mrs. Sallie Scherer against R. M. Payne, now in progress in this city, Charles Payne, son of R. M. Payne, went to jail rather than reveal his father's whereabouts.

We want all the boys to bring their clothes of us is about the most profitable thing the boys can do.

If their clothes come from us they will have that perfect fit and natty appearance all boys take such pride in.

The parents will be pleased, too, for they will be proud of the boys, and know that they have saved money by coming here.

We want all the boys to bring their parents here.

After nine days of wonder the puppy gets his eyes opened.

THE NEWS FEELS CALLED UPON TO PROVE ITS DEMOC-RACY.

The News in its frantic effort to prove its Democracy, like all bolters, makes its appeal so frantic and endeavors to prove it so forcibly that it demonstrates its desire to consider the past a blank, and hopes it may be forgotten; but the act of a traitor is not so soon forgotten even by Free Silver Democrats. Its boastful effusions and predictions will not obliterate from the minds of the people its action when between two sums the entire list of Democratic nominees was hauled down from its masthead and the corporation that controlled it made a herculean effort to defeat, and did defeat that idol of the new Democracy, William Goebel. The people have not forgotten the many indictments that were charged against the very men that are now in the supremacy and whose favor it is endeavoring to win. No abuse was too severe, nor language too strong to condemn them. The Music hall scene was painted its darkest hue, the dirty linen of the inner closet of Democracy was aired with delight, then as now the most forcible language known to the college egotist was brought into action and fired broadcast at the very men whom they would deceive.

It boastfully intimates its intention of nailing the names of the nominees so firmly to the head of its columns that even a "consideration" will not detach them. The Sun would advise that they be bolted there. The fight against Goebel is not the last and only offense that has been committed by this Judas within the short time of eighteen months, it is hardly necessary for us to review its action of six months ago when it openly assailed the campaign committee that was in charge of the party's destiny and exposed party secrets with the unquestioned purpose of defeating the nominee for congress, and of placing these managers in disfavor with their party.

In fact the people remember too well that this degenerate fossil has been on all sides of every question—as its interest appeared—regardless of the welfare of the Democratic party and if we are not mistaken in the present leaders of the party the News will have to take a seat on the back bench, renew its stand, as well as do some penance for past offenses before it will be permitted to lead, or even advise, as to the future of the new Democracy.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY

MISTER'S SOBER REQUEST.

From the King: The policeman had given his testimony, which was unqualifiedly to the fact of the old gentleman's intoxication. Then the old servant was called to the witness box.

There was a mingled expression of indignation and determination on his countenance. He testified flatly, to the surprise of the court, that the old man was sober when he came home. The magistrate proceeded to question the witness:

"You say that Mr. — was sober when he came home?"

"Yes, sir."

"Did he get to bed alone?"

"No, sir."

"Did you put him to bed?"

"Yes, sir."

"And he was perfectly sober?"

"Yes, sir."

"What did he say when you put him to bed?"

"Anything else?"

"Yes, sir."

"What was it? Tell us exactly what he said, every word."

"He said as how I was to wake him and call him early, for he was to be queen of the May."

The old man was fined.

And he arose and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea in the room of his father, he said, "I will go thither; God in a dream, I went to see him."

Closing Out Sale

Our doors are open at retail prices to close out our large stock of Glass and Queensware, Lamps, Enamelled and Tinwares.

We reserve no part of it, but put everything under the hammer.

Our entire business is to be changed, and to carry out our plan we must get rid of our present stock, and do it quickly.

A personal inspection is necessary if you are to know the kind of prices we are making. We can only quote a few in this space:

One lot of short dinner sets at $2.50 per set. Full 35-piece dinner sets as low as $3.35 each. Full 100-piece dinner sets as low as $4.90 each. Genuine China 100-piece dinner sets at $10.95 each. Haviland China 100-piece dinner sets at $22.75 each. Chamber sets as low as $1.75 per set of ten pieces. Tumblers, per set of 6, at 9c, 12c and 15c. Goblets, per set of 6, at 15c, 20c and 25c. Syrup Stands, nickel tops, at 10 cents.

Steel Enamelled wares are sold at prices of ordinary Tinware in many instances. This is a list of seconds, limited in quantity.

Advertisement's cost money, and to enumerate the entire list would entail an item of expense that a "no profit" sale would not justify. You will have to come to see us if you would know the extent of this sale.

He—D'je see any men's brogans for $1.39?

She—Why don't you get shaved?

He—Waiting for pay day.

She—Don't you know the rent and the gas will be due this pay day?

He—Then I'll cut out the shave.

She—I wish I had never left mamma, so I do.

He—Others—others.

She—I have a good notion to go right back to her this minute.

He—Have you got an umbrella?
